Na oku Maatua Whangai Ahau i Whakatipu

“Maoridom is refocussing on its own cultural strengths to meet the social challenges ahead”.

1988

‘He Korowai Oranga’ 2002

“The potential within whānau has never been greater and unleashing that potential will not only bring benefits to Māori but will add greatly to the nation and to the prospects of future generations”.

Whānau Ora: Report of the Taskforce on Whānau-Centred Initiatives

to:

Hon Tariana Turia
Minister for the Community and Voluntary Sector

Whānau Ora | The next decade (2011)

“Whānau Ora is already anchored on solid foundations”.

“The burdens carried by whānau today must be addressed but they should not obscure the vision for tomorrow”.

Prof Sir Mason Durie

Hothouse / 13-14 September 2014

“201 applications received by Te Pūtahitanga – this is tangible proof that our people are generating solutions at the flaxroots – they are experimenting, experiencing, developing amazing ideas and Te Pūtahitanga is helping to bring them into life”.

Is the vision you boldly stood up for in 2013 being realized?”

Are you
